The Student Research Mentor FOA is intended to engage undergraduate students in research and support faculty in this endeavor. Effort for a Student Research Mentor (SRM), is limited to 20% or less.

Eligible institutions include: Brigham Young University – Idaho, The College of Idaho, College of Western Idaho, College of Southern Idaho, Lewis-Clark State College, North Idaho College, and Northwest Nazarene University.

1. You may not apply if you are COBRE-funded.
2. You may not accept this award if you receive a Developmental Research Project or Pilot Project.
3. The Student Research Mentor’s funding will be an amendment to the institutional INBRE subcontract. You will be required to track your budget internally.
4. The following information is required:
   - A brief description of the research project and the role of undergraduate students in its execution (300 word summary).
   - Earliest start date is May 1, 2021.
   - This opportunity is for two years and may be extended if milestone expectations are met.
   - A budget, of no more than $35,000 direct costs, that may include:
     - The mentor’s requested salary and fringe benefit costs for up to 10 weeks (2.5 months)
     - Student research salary/fringe ($6,000 + institution fringe benefits rate)
     - Research supplies and poster printing costs ($1,100 max)
     - Publication costs
     - Travel costs for the student and mentor to attend the INBRE Summer Research Conference in Moscow.
     - F&A costs should be requested in addition to the $35k max direct cost budget.

5. Due date for applications is February 1st, 2021.
Student Research Mentor Application

Name*

Department

Institution*

Brief description of research project and role of undergraduate students in its execution (300 words maximum)*

Budget and Justification document. Click here to access the form to complete. Please upload your completed document below, in the "Budget & Justification" field.

Budget & Justification Upload*